About The Matheson

The Matheson's chef and owner, Dustin Valette, pats a concrete corner of the restaurant and opens up a bit about his great-grandfather, "This was where P  p  's bread oven would have been."

Honor   Valette, called P  p   by his family, was known for his traditional sourdough and warmth. The French immigrant had another bakery where Chef Valette's first restaurant Valette, stands now, in downtown Healdsburg. We've got some great stories about Honor  . Remind us to tell you over a glass of wine, (or with our signature brandy cocktail).

The Matheson nourishes these roots by building strong relationships and supporting craftspeople. In 100 years, what new stories will harken back to this dining room?
